

Consecration of the Five Senses

Eyes - Father, in order that I may see like Jesus saw so that I can do as He did, I consecrate my eyes to You this day. Focus my eyes on You and on what You are doing. I want to have Your perspective towards everything I do, see, and experience this day. I purpose to guard my eyes from gazing at what is unwholesome and unrighteous; I choose to keep my eyes on You, that I may be more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Ears - Father, I consecrate my ears to You this day and I purpose to listen for Your voice that I may obey it. Grant me the ear of a disciple, filter out the noises of this world and let me hear the sounds of heaven. I purpose to guard my ears from listening to unwholesome and unrighteous speech. I choose to sanctify my ears that I may be more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Mouth – Father, I know that my tongue affects the course of my life. I consecrate my tongue to you this day. May every word I speak be the words I hear from You; and may no other words pass my lips. May I no longer be ensnared by the words of my mouth, but let my words be the words of Life. I purpose to guard my tongue this day, to think before I speak that today, I may be more like Jesus than I was yesterday.

Nose – Father, Your word says that we are to be a fragrance unto You but I confess that too often I am close enough to the world and its seductions that I smell like its stench. Forgive me also for the times I have inserted my 'nose' inappropriately into other people's affairs. I want to be so intimate with You that I can smell Your fragrance, the very fragrance of Heaven. I consecrate my nose to You this day that I may be more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Hands - Father I give You my hands. Use them for righteous acts, for worship and for service to others. I consecrate my hands to You that they may be the hands of Jesus this day. Let me touch what He would touch, and refrain from touching anything He would refrain from touching. May my hands bring glory to You this day and may my use of them make me more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Feet – Father, I give You my feet. I'm tired of walking my own way and stumbling when I should be running for You. Make me to walk in the path You have laid out for my life. I dedicate myself to go where You tell me to go and to stay where You tell me to stay. I declare that my steps are ordered of the Lord and I yield my feet to You that this scripture be fulfilled in my life. Grant me grace to walk like Jesus walked so that I will be more like Him today than I was yesterday.

Consecration of the Five Senses

Eyes - Father, in order that I may see like Jesus saw so that I can do as He did, I consecrate my eyes to You this day. Focus my eyes on You and on what You are doing. I want to have Your perspective towards everything I do, see, and experience this day. I purpose to guard my eyes from gazing at what is unwholesome and unrighteous; I choose to keep my eyes on You, that I may be more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Ears - Father, I consecrate my ears to You this day and I purpose to listen for Your voice that I may obey it. Grant me the ear of a disciple, filter out the noises of this world and let me hear the sounds of heaven. I purpose to guard my ears from listening to unwholesome and unrighteous speech. I choose to sanctify my ears that I may be more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Mouth – Father, I know that my tongue affects the course of my life. I consecrate my tongue to you this day. May every word I speak be the words I hear from You; and may no other words pass my lips. May I no longer be ensnared by the words of my mouth, but let my words be the words of Life. I purpose to guard my tongue this day, to think before I speak that today, I may be more like Jesus than I was yesterday.

Nose – Father, Your word says that we are to be a fragrance unto You but I confess that too often I am close enough to the world and its seductions that I smell like its stench. Forgive me also for the times I have inserted my 'nose' inappropriately into other people's affairs. I want to be so intimate with You that I can smell Your fragrance, the very fragrance of Heaven. I consecrate my nose to You this day that I may be more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Hands - Father I give You my hands. Use them for righteous acts, for worship and for service to others. I consecrate my hands to You that they may be the hands of Jesus this day. Let me touch what He would touch, and refrain from touching anything He would refrain from touching. May my hands bring glory to You this day and may my use of them make me more like Jesus today than I was yesterday.

Feet – Father, I give You my feet. I'm tired of walking my own way and stumbling when I should be running for You. Make me to walk in the path You have laid out for my life. I dedicate myself to go where You tell me to go and to stay where You tell me to stay. I declare that my steps are ordered of the Lord and I yield my feet to You that this scripture be fulfilled in my life. Grant me grace to walk like Jesus walked so that I will be more like Him today than I was yesterday.